

PRIVACY POLICY

The trust of our customers is our most valuable asset. We safeguard that trust by keeping nonpublic personal information about customers in a secure environment and using that information in accordance with this Privacy Policy. Below is our privacy pledge to our customers:

Information We May Collect

We may collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you (or is provided to us on your behalf) on applications and other forms, such as your name, address, telephone number, employer, and income;
- Information about your transactions with us or other nonaffiliated parties, such as your name, address, telephone number, age, insurance coverage, transaction history, claims history and premiums;

Information We May Disclose and To Whom We May Disclose Information

The nonpublic personal information we may collect as described above may be disclosed in order to deliver products and services to you, provide customer service or administer your account.

Disclosures Permitted by Law

We may disclose all of the nonpublic personal information described above as permitted by law. For example, we may use affiliated and nonaffiliated parties to perform services for us, such as providing customer assistance, handling claims, protection against fraud and maintaining software for us. We also may disclose information in response to requests from law enforcement agencies or State insurance authorities.

Information Regarding Former Customers

We do not disclose nonpublic personal information about former customers or customers with inactive accounts, except in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

Our Security Procedures

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees whom we determine have a legitimate business purpose to access such information in connection with the provision of products or services to you. We employ security techniques designed to protect our customer data. We provide training and communications programs designed to educate employees about the meaning and requirements of our strict standards for data security and confidentiality.
